NARRATIVE:

On 12/7/2011 at approximately 1949 hours Burlington Police were called to an apartment on Church St. near the intersection of King St for a report of drug activity. On scene investigation identified Mark Walker, 22 YOA of Burlington, VT, as the resident of the address where the drug activity was taking place. Officers subsequently applied for and were granted a search warrant for the apartment. As a result of the search warrant execution officers located two (2) pounds of marijuana and over $4,000 in United States Currency.

Walker was subsequently lodged for Possession of Marijuana – Felony with the Vermont Department of Corrections for lack of $10,000 bail and will be arraigned on 12/8/2011.

The maximum penalty for possessing this quantity of marijuana is a term of imprisonment not more than five years or fined not more than $100,000.00, or both.
